The Daily Journal

After lots of prodding, the Ukiah Music Center finally offered its first Adult Rock Camp. This Friday, July 24 at 7 p.m. Treblemakers Music School, 171 A Brush Street in Ukiah, next to Maldonado Karate will be hosting their first Adult Rock Camp's band debut concert. The Rock Camp 'headliners' called 'Get Even' are ages 18 and way above and have been practicing all week for this fun and entertaining evening of vintage rock by some of the older rockers in the area. Admission is free and the concert will be about an hour long.

The band is currently in creative negotiations with their perspective managers about their up coming tour of Calpella, Nice, Covelo and Hopland. The UMC will be doing everything they can to keep the paparazzi from crashing the event as there may be many rabid fans in the audience.

'Rock Camp' sessions are for all age musicians and is a five-day camp designed to teach each rocker new rock songs every day and how to be in a functioning band.

The camp instructor this session is local teacher and well known band leader TJ Elton of the Felt-tips.

For more info contact the Ukiah Music Center at 462-8863 or go to the Web site at ukiahmusic.com and check out current info on the camps.

BILLBOARD

Antioquia to perform at the Ukiah Brewing Company on Sept. 4

San Francisco-based quartet Antioquia will treat Ukiah to their blend of Afro-Colombian and African rhythm, experimental rock, funk and reggae on Saturday, Sept. 4.

Having recently returned from their "Save the Dinosaurs" Tour to the Midwest and back, the group is raising money and awareness for their "Post (Peak Oil) Rock" project, in which they are "weaning their music off fossil fuels using Waste Vegetable Oil and Pedal Power."

Mark Weston Band to perform at Yokayo Bowling Center Sports Bar on Aug. 1

The Mark Weston Band will be performing new country and classic rock in Ukiah at the Yokayo Bowling Center Sports Bar on Saturday, Aug. 1. The members of the group are Mark Weston, guitar and vocals; Eric Mattson, bass and vocals; and Fred Hartnet on drums and vocals.

The band prides themselves on their three part melodic harmonies and ability to keep a dance crowd on the floor without ever losing sight that job security is directly based upon audience participation and rapport.

Having self-released their first CD compilation entitled "Where Were You" in 2000, Weston and the band are currently in the finishing stages of mixing and mastering a second release, an album not only containing 10 new tracks, but the first release's 10 songs re-mixed as well.

The band's repertoire covers a variety of genre ranging from the 'Top-40 rock songs of Yester-Year' up through the 'Cutting Edge country sounds of The New Millennium,' including a Showcase of Originals. The Mark Weston Band can currently be seen performing at various venues in Lake, Mendocino, and Sonoma counties.

Ukiah Music Center Jazz Camp for adults set to start Aug. 3

As part of their summer series of Rock Camps and Jazz Camps, Ukiah Music Center will be offering a chance for adults to show their stuff and learn the basics of jamming with the jazz cats.

Jazz Camp is scheduled to begin the morning of Monday, Aug. 3 at Acoustic Café, 745 N. State Street, Ukiah.

The class will begin at 9 a.m. and runs until noon Monday through Friday, then Friday night at 7 p.m., they will perform for their family and friends. Instructor Matt Rothstein will teach the basics of learning jazz standards, working together as a unit and the best approach to improvisation and performance.

For more information on Adult Rock and Jazz Camps, contact Ukiah Music Center at 462-8863, or online at www.UkiahMusic.com, or just walk in to the store between the hours of 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. and pick up an application.
